Sips & Savors with Catalina View Gardens at La Venta Inn

Photographed by Breana Isley

On July 14 La Venta Inn and Made by Meg launched the Summer Sunset Series. In celebration of the anniversary of Palos Verdes Peninsula's designation as a wine-growing region, Jim York took guests through the history and tasting notes of the beloved vineyard's signature wines while Made by Meg Catering proudly served perfectly paired artisan charcuterie and cheese delights. Guests mingled as they sipped and savored the sunset off the beautiful patio of La Venta Inn.

The next event will be on August 18th, Sunsets and Succulents with the Flower Duet, followed by Live at La Venta with the Palos Verdes Art Center
